

I am a happy participant of the Indiana Telephone Privacy program. I strongly oppose the CBA in the attempt to flex their political muscle with the FCC. I will be very disappointed if the FCC caves in to their unwanted phone calls. The Indiana Attorney General should be supported in stopping this issue dead in it's tracks